

Examinations Policy

We aim to develop the full potential of each student. Our policy is to enter all students for the relevant examinations except where students have had poor attendance.

The final decision about subject entries is taken only after very full consultation with students and their parents.

Details of the syllabus offered in each subject are available on request.